Menstrual Health: Bharat Darshan - Episode 4
Development Discourse: Communication for Reproductive Health

Hosted by Jatan Sansthan

Men who mattered.
Men who encouraged and supported.
Today’s episode is dedicated to these men.

Ashoke Chatterjee
M.P. Ranjan
Vikas Satwalekar
Vijay Joshi

Men who mattered, जिनका बहुत महत्व रहा।
जिन्होंने आगे बढ़ने के लिए प्रेरित किया और अपना सहयोग दिया।
आज का ये एपिसोड इन्हीं को समर्पित है।
的发展对话：沟通生殖健康

团队：月经健康：印度巡礼
Dr. Kailash Brijwasi has over 30 years of experience of working at the grassroots. His area of expertise is education. He was with Seva Mandir, Vidhya Bhawan Education Center and Lok Jumbish Project. He was earlier an Associate Professor at the Centre of Women’s Studies at Janardan Rai Nagar Rajasthan Vidyapeeth University, Udaipur. His other area of keen interest has been in women’s issues in various sectors: gender, education, health and reproductive rights.
Amitabh Pande has 25 years of design experience and has been associated with both international and grassroots organizations is expertise is in the area of Behavioral Change Communication. A creative visualizer, he is a well know for his work in health / education / water and sanitation campaigns in the state of Bihar. He is the UNICEF State Consultant – Communication for Development (C for D)
Naveen Bagalkot is a design researcher, educator, and facilitator broadly working at the intersections of Human-Computer Interaction design (HCI), participatory design and community-based care. As a part of the DesignBeku collective, he focuses on facilitating collaborative design and critical making for and with grass-roots community organizations such as MAYA Health, IT for Change, and Jatan Sansthan.
Thomson Muriyadan is a UX designer at ServiceNow and a recent graduate of the Masters in New Humanities & Design Program from Srishti Institute Of Art Design and Technology.
Jawed is an 18 year old boy from Sansera, Rajsamand. He is studying ITI Fitting from Government ITI college, Nathdwara. Today he will share his experiences from a 7 days residential rural immersion programme with Srishti Institute Of Art Design and Technology.
Monika Sharma has a Masters in Social work and has been associated with organizations working in the area of reproductive health since 1998. She worked with Vikalpdesign in the years 2000 to 2002, conducting all their training programs with adolescents boys and girls. She was responsible for field testing IEC materials, developing content and was a huge support in the development of training aids.
लक्ष्मी मूर्ति ने 1988 में विकल्प डिजाइन की स्थापना की. आप साल 2001 से जतन संस्थान की सह-संस्थापक और अतिरिक्त निदेशक के रूप में काम कर रहीं हैं. आप “दृश्य-समझ” और “दृश्य साक्षरता” में अपनी निपुणता रखतीं हैं. आप उगेर सेनेटरी पैड की जनक है और अपने सभी डिजाइन सम्बन्धित काम को कॉपी लेफ्ट रखतीं हैं.

आप वर्तमान में जेके-लक्ष्मीपत्यूधनवधसदटी के ऑफ़ डिज़ाइन स्टडीज़ की सदस्य है और आजीविका ब्यूरो संस्थान की ट्रस्टी भी हैं.

Lakshmi Murthy established Vikalpdesign in 1988 and co-founded Jatan Sansthan in 2001. Her expertise is in visual perception and visual literacy. She is the innovator of Uger Cloth Sanitary Pads and keeps all her design work in the ‘Copy Left’ space. She serves as the Additional Director, Jatan Sansthan, is a member on the Board of Design Studies; JK Lakshmipath University, Jaipur and is a trustee of the NGO, Aajeevika Bureau.
Our special invitee for this Episode is Sanjeev Bothra, who will summarize the sessions and give his valuable input.

Sanjeev Bothra is a practising designer, educator and researcher with experience spanning more than 25 years. An NID alumnus, with a PhD in design education, he has been associated with clients, projects with public/private sectors, government and NGOs. As a visiting faculty, Sanjeev has been involved with design education programmes in India and overseas. His research interest lies in design education, intersecting with socially responsive professional practice.